

International Online Roundtable Discussion

Human Mobility, Rights, and Borders: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Protection, Integration, and Exclusion

Format: International Online Roundtable (Zoom)

Duration: 2 hours (120 minutes)

Moderator: Dr. Myrhge Spross Bárcenas

Proposed Agenda

Segment	Time
Welcome and Opening Remarks	5 min
Introduction of Speakers	5 min
Theme 1	25 min
Theme 2	25 min
Theme 3	25 min
Cross-Cutting Discussion and	10 min
Audience Q&A	20 min
Closing Remarks	5 min
Total	120 min

Role of the Moderator

Dr. Myrhge Spross Bárcenas will serve as moderator and facilitator of the discussion. Her role will include:

- Welcoming participants and audience members.
- Introducing the speakers.
- Framing each thematic discussion.
- Facilitating dialogue among panelists.
- Connecting key ideas across themes.
- Moderating audience questions.
- Delivering concluding remarks and key takeaways.

Estimated speaking time:

- Opening remarks: 5 minutes.
 - Introduction of speakers: 5 minutes.
 - Theme introductions: approximately 1 minute per theme.
 - Ongoing moderation throughout the event.
 - Closing remarks: 3–5 minutes.
-

Theme 1

Convergence of Human Rights: Child Protection and Access to Justice

Participants

- Dr. Paola Jackeline Ontiveros Vázquez
- Dr. Norbert Cyrus

- * Justice and conflict resolution
- * Cross-border mediation and conciliation
- * Human rights in contexts of mobility

Total: 25 minutes

Theme 2

Migration Experiences and Trajectories: Contributions, Challenges, and Social Transformation

Participants

- Dr. María Isabel Medina Ruíz
- Dr. Javier Ramírez Escamilla
- Dr. Federico Stezano

- * Dreamers and educational mobility
- * Migration, economy, and development
- * Public policy and economic dynamics

Second Round

Discussion question:

What do societies gain and lose through migration, and how should we understand the contributions of migrants and Dreamers?

- 2 minutes per participant

Subtotal: 8 minutes

Moderated Exchange

Connecting migration experiences, economic impacts, educational mobility, and public policy.

5 minutes

Total: 25 minutes

Theme 3

Borders as Spaces of Exclusion, Biopolitics, and Control

Participants

- Dr. Irwing Rico
- Dr. Luis Manuel Aguilar
- Dr. Estela Schindel

- * Racism and the production of otherness
- * Biopolitics and management of mobility
- * Disappearance and death in transit

Moderated Dialogue

Discussion among panelists on biopolitics, militarization, representation, and border governance.

7 minutes

Total: 25 minutes

Cross-Cutting Discussion and Final Reflections

Question for All Participants

If you could identify one urgent transformation needed to build more inclusive societies and more humane approaches to mobility and borders, what would it be?

- One minute per participant (8 minutes total)
- Moderator's synthesis and concluding reflection (2 minutes)

Total: 10 minutes

Cross-Cutting Discussion and Final Reflections

Audience Questions and Answers

Duration: 20 minutes

Recommended format:

- 5 audience questions.
- Approximately 4–5 minutes per question.
- Questions selected to encourage responses from multiple panelists and foster interdisciplinary dialogue.

Closing Remarks

Duration: 5 minutes

Dr. Spross Bárcenas will:

- Summarize the main insights from the discussion.
 - Highlight areas of convergence and future research opportunities.
 - Thank participants and audience members.
 - Invite attendees to future events and collaborations.
-

Cross-Cutting Discussion and Final Reflections

Question for All Participants

If you could identify one urgent transformation needed to build more inclusive societies and more humane approaches to mobility and borders, what would it be?

- One minute per participant (8 minutes total)
- Moderator's synthesis and concluding reflection (2 minutes)

Total: 10 minutes

Audience Questions and Answers

Duration: 20 minutes

Recommended format:

- 5 audience questions.
- Approximately 4–5 minutes per question.
- Questions selected to encourage responses from multiple panelists and foster interdisciplinary dialogue.

Closing Remarks

Duration: 5 minutes

Dr. Spross Bárcenas will:

- Summarize the main insights from the discussion.
- Highlight areas of convergence and future research opportunities.
- Thank participants and audience members.
- Invite attendees to future events and collaborations.

Instagram

UNAM Alemania

<https://www.instagram.com/unamalemania/?hl=es>

Viadrina International Affairs

https://www.instagram.com/viadrina_international?igsh=MXNINzBudmtmNG05cQ==