

Short Biography - Dr. Mikhail Minakov

Dr. Mikhail Minakov is a political philosopher living in Kiev and Milan. His major philosophical investigations focus on human experience, social knowledge, political system, historical consciousness, and multiple modernities. His current affiliation is the Kennan Institute, Wilson Center for International Scholars, he is a Vice Chair of the Academic Advisory Board at the Center for Eastern European and International Studies (ZOiS, Berlin). Mikhail Minakov holds a Doctor of Sciences in Philosophy degree from Kyiv Institute of Philosophy, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine (2007). He also holds degrees of Candidate of Sciences in Philosophy (2001, Kyiv Institute of Philosophy), MA in Philosophy (1998, UKMA), BA in Philosophy (1996, UKMA), Feldsher (1990, Zaporizhzhya Medical School).

More Information: <https://www.wilsoncenter.org/person/mykhailo-minakov>